ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The celebration of 150th Birth Anniversary of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi is a humble submission of gratitude for the influence and inspiration both to the individuals and world leaders in the fight against inequality and oppression which has provided an invaluable contribution to non-violent freedom struggles across the world. The life of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was a unique journey towards the path of greatness. He courageously proclaimed that his life was his message. A simple man clad in a hand woven dhoti, he believed that the greatest weapon is one's own character.

It was Rabindranath Tagore the great poet, who first addressed M. K. Gandhi as 'Mahatma', and soon the whole world started using this name with profound reverence. A truly befitting name for the father of our nation, who represents all that is noble about our great heritage. M. K. Gandhi was truly one of the greatest leaders of modern India, yet to millions of people across the world he was much more than that. To others he was a saint whose values will have ever lasting relevance.
